SUMMER AND MUSIC FESTIVAL CONTINUES WITH FARTBARF HEADLINING TWISTED AT THE PIKE

DLBA's famed concert series presents edgy electronic trio Fartbarf and others as full lineup is announced.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (July 29, 2015) – Electro-punk outfit Fartbarf will be headlining the next Summer and Music (SAM) event, Twisted at the Pike in DTLB, set to take place Saturday, August 1 from 5PM to 11PM.

Twisted at the Pike is Summer and Music's carnival-centric event that celebrates what makes Long Beach extraordinary: innovative music, curious carny folk, tribal fire belly dancing, local grub, craft beer thanks to Auld Dubliner and more.

"Last year's Twisted was spectacular," said SAM organizer and co-founder Ashley Hectus. "The amalgamation of extraordinary bands and artists… The uniquely talented performers, the carny vibe and The Pike as the setting provided a really exciting, extraordinary experience. This event truly celebrates the diversity, innovation and love of art that makes Long Beach exceptional. This year we have added even more candy for your ears and eyes and are thrilled to have Fartbarf returning to the stage."

Joining the quirky, Neanderthal-mask sporting group for the free concert are:

- Blank Tapes
- Rudy de Anda
- Tennis System
- LITRONIX
- Better Heroes
- DJ BIX
- Sirena Serpentina
- Sea Funk Brass Band
- Cirque Quirk
